REWS ENJOY LONG WORKOUT.

esity Pretty Unsteady, Men Now Being Accustomed to One Another. ambridge, Mass., April 30.—The musen crews to-day enjoyed a long rhout, and gave their new oars a orough test. Of the two varsities, or B seems to be the more advanced that it lost no time in getting to ther. The varsity is pretty unsteady, the indicates that the men are not accustomed to one another. The ricut this afternoon was very long, a two crews being coached by Coache a two crews being coached by Coache two crews being coached by Coach fray from his single. There was a gight improvement over yesterday's actice, especially in the finish. The seconds had a little brush with the freshmen for about fifty strokes, which the seconds won by a few et. The seconds have regained the frm which they displayed against the avy second. The Harvard crew management has cided to baid the annual spring class ow races it Wednesday, May 6.

John Marshall High School hall little trouble in defeating the Petersburg and took second on Laval's sacrifice, Busch hit a grounder to Burnhart, who fumbled, Keller going to third, and Busch was safe at first. Jackel hit to deep left, scoring Keller, and the big end. "Big Boy" Atkinson was on the mound for the Marshaintes, and was never in better trim, homing the visitors to three meanly bingles, retiring twelve by the strike-out route and giving but three passes. The Goober team got two of their hits in the first trame, and "Big Boy" held them hit to deep left, scoring keller, and the game was over.

Swing and Burnhart both pitched well in the first part of the game, but after the fifth inning, the players took kindly to their pitching and hit the ball safe and hard, Jackel, Damrau and Barett, for the locals, and Howell doing the hitting for petersburg.

The youthful "Buschmen" garnered the fielding honors. The score:

Great Actor in Great Part.

Such a fantastic tale of love, Intrigue and tragedy as is vividly untolded in Edward Kuoblauch's Oriental drama, "Kismet," which was presented by Otis Skinner for the first of four performances at the Academy of Music last night, could be found elsewhere only within the pages of the "Thousand and One Nights." Not in the carefully edited "Arabian Nights," with which children and adults are alike familiar, but in the "Thousand and One Nights." known to the comparative few chiefly through the unexpurgated translation of Sir Richard Burton.
